

THERMOMETER KIT 0-120°C

Function

The 0-120°C Thermometer Kit is a practical choice for accurately monitoring temperature in your hydronic systems, such as heat pumps, domestic boilers, and heating circuits. Supplied as a pair, it allows differential temperature monitoring, which is essential for assessing the performance and energy efficiency of your system.

Dimensions

